CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Tennessee law prohibits a public entity such as West Knox Utility District from entering into contracts or buying goods and services from businesses in which a member of the Board of Commissioners has a "Direct Interest". A "Direct Interest" is an interest in a business as an owner or partner or one having other controlling interest. A controlling interest arises when no other shareholder owns more shares of stock in the corporation than you.

The law also prohibits West Knox Utility District Commissioners from being indirectly interested in any contract to which West Knox Utility District is a party unless the Commissioner publicly acknowledges his/her interest. Indirect interest means any contract in which the Commissioner is interested in but not directly so, or includes contracts where the officer is otherwise directly interested but is the sole supplier of the goods or services to West Knox Utility District.
